CODES
 These codes provide no additional information. After the Bureau collected the census schedules, the staff, not the enumerators, coded the information on occupations and nativity using codes established for the 1930 census. The Bureau staff tabulated this data to create the statistical summaries for its reports to Congress.

Nativity codes (columns A, B, and C following column 21)
 These codes were derived from the information reported in columns 18, 19, and 20.

Occupation codes (column D following column 26)
 These codes reflect the occupation reported in column 25.

For additional information on these codes, see
